Pensions Publications

We publish monthly bulletins and briefings as well as our quarterly technical briefing (Practical Pensions). If you do not receive these publications and would like to do so, please contact gemma.jackson@pinsentmasons.com

Breakfast Briefings

Briefings will be held in March and November in our UK offices. The briefings are designed to up-date you on current pensions issues. Further information about the precise content of each briefing will be published nearer the time. Delegates will have an opportunity to discuss best practice and their own organisation's experience with other pensions professionals, as well as with the highly experienced pensions team at Pinsent Masons.

These briefings start with registration and breakfast at 8.30am. Presentations begin at 9.00am finishing by 10.15am.

Alastair Meeks

National Head of Pensions
Pinsent Masons

"2010 promises to be another challenging year for pensions schemes, as both trustees and employers grapple with the issues thrown up by the financial and economic crisis. As one of the largest pensions teams in the UK, with an outstanding record for delivering clear and concise pensions advice, we can guide you through these challenges.

Whether you are a trustee, independent trustee, an employer, an in-house lawyer or an intermediary/consultant, Pensions Network aims to provide you with a comprehensive briefing to keep you in the picture.

Pinsent Masons take an integrated and complete approach to advising clients on employee matters from rights and risks to rewards and retirement. We would be delighted to discuss with you our range of services spanning employment law, pensions and share plans.
